Korea's inconvenient truth:

★U.S Army report No,49 in 1944

<http://www.exordio.com/1939-1945/codex/Documentos/report-49-USA-orig.html>

A "comfort girl" is nothing more than a prostitute or "professional camp follower" attached to the Japanese Army

★From the 'Special Questions on Koreans 1945'. (US National Archives and Records Administration)

The Korean comfort women we met were all either volunteers, or women who had been sold by their parents. If any of the women had been victims of coercion, all Koreans, young and old, would have risen up in rage, regardless of whatever retaliation, and killed the Japanese.

★IWG Report to the United States Congress April 2007

<http://www.archives.gov/iwg/reports/final-report-2007.pdf>

There is no evidence that the Japanese military abducted or was directly involved in entrapping women in Korea

★Korean Gov. is sued by the comfort women during and after Korean War.

★Korean Army had Comfort women in the Vietnam war.

★Korean peninsula was not the battlefields, therefore Japanese military was NOT in Korea. 242,341 Korean-Japanese volunteer soldiers were in the imperial Japanese Army.
